

1. GFAA Gallery, Gainesville Fine Arts Association, 1314 S. Main St. High School & College Juried Exhibition!
The Gainesville Fine Arts Association Presents the second annual High School & College Juried Exhibition: NEXT. Come see what our local students are making! On display until May 22. Local art for sale in the exhibition and in our gift shop. Open Wed - Sat 11 - 4 and by appointment. Flyer image: Brain Freeze by Francheska Melendez.

2. First Magnitude Brewing Co., 1220 SE Veitch St. Gainesville FL. We are hosting the Turtle Survival Alliance on Sunday April 26th. From 1-6 PM (yes, we know it's not Artwalk Gainesville, but we LOVE turtles too). Artists, Live music, Food Trucks, Murch too! Turtle Talks with experts from 1-2 pm.

3. BINGO, DELI & PUB: 619 S. Main St. 352-451-4470. ARTMatters. Gainesville's excellent artists mix it up and come together again in a month-long show. Art Matters is a collective of accomplished artists working across a wide spectrum of media and creative traditions.

4. CIVIC MEDIA Center, 433 S. Main St. This month's Gainesville Art Walk at the Civic Media Center features Lily Sage's Reverence as Resistance: prints, paintings, puppet/mask, drawings, collages, poetry, zines, textiles, performance art. As Bread & Puppeteer, they internalized the ethic of generating "cheap political art," and learned printmaking! To illustrate their ethnographic research on shamanism in Mongolia. "They take seriously Joseph Campbell's definition of artists as, "the ones who communicate myth for today" amplifying messages otherwise lost in liminality.

5. Hippodrome Theater Art Gallery: 25 Se. 2nd PL. (352)-372-4477
Karl Schwartz has spent a lifetime redefining form and color. His works are held in private collections from New York, Paris, to the Middle East. Karl's "Abstract Impressionism" offers a rare look at art that is both structured and free. We invite you to experience these evocative works in person and discover the evolution of a true master.

6. Sweetwater Print Cooperative 117 S. Main St. This month is a new start of sorts. Sweetwater presents "Amizades & Natureza". Welcome Toni Jepson's travel photography. As we are told Toni has built an ole School Darkroom! To do his own processing and printing, to experience the Magic of his own photos images in the making. Show opens 7-9pm on Friday, April 24th and runs through Sunday, May 24th. sweetwaterprintcoop.org/ 352-514-3838 for more info.

7. The Top-Secret Space, 10 N. Main St. Friday 4/24 and Saturday 4/25 from 7-10pm. Join @oldheadgnv! Abstract-ed a solo exhibition visual art project created by Maria Leite, abstraction as a means to represent complex sociopolitical realities, personal narratives, and collective emotions. 60 pieces created between 2015 and 2026 that span photography, painting, drawing, collage, and mixed media.

8. The SL8 Gallery of Art. 10 E. University Ave. From 7-11 pm. Art Gallery + Cinema. "The SL8, an art cafe, is open Thursdays-Sundays, 7-10 pm, with a slate of activities! Thurs - Garden of the Muses, Fri. & Sat. music, art, film, community, Sun. Art Films! The SL8 is pleased to show the collage work of George Hecht."

9. Artisans' Guild Gallery, 224 Nw. 2nd Ave. 11am-10pm Our featured artist of the month is Linda Blondheim. As a landscape painter, Linda is devoted to documenting the rural lands, agricultural spaces, and native trees of her beloved Florida. She views painters as stewards of history and culture, capturing the spirit of their time. Through her work, she hopes to leave a lasting visual record that honors and preserves the beauty of Florida's rural landscape.
