

1. GFAA Gallery, Gainesville Fine Arts Association, 1314 S. Main St.
Black Cosmologies in World-Building, Storytelling & Imagination. GFAA and The Center for Arts Migration and Entrepreneurship presents Black Cosmologies in World-Building, Storytelling & Imagination, a part of Afrofuturism Week. On display through February 20. Visit afrofuturismweek.org for more!
2. First Magnitude Brewing Co., 1220 SE Veitch St. Gainesville FL.
Hosting events and making sure you have a good time. With great people and a large variety, of not only their beers but they host artists, musicians, and events for all of Gainesville, don't miss out.
3. BINGO, DELI & PUB: 619 S. Main St. 352-451-4470.
Larissa Kulyk is a local Gainesville artist. Her work showcases her love of vibrant colors and flowers while celebrating the divine feminine. She is excited to share new and old pieces with the Gainesville community.
4. CIVIC MEDIA Center, 433 S. Main St.
Queer Fest retrospective, Celebrating 15 years of Queer art, music, community, and resistance. This show will feature art installations from past years. Flyers, collective storytelling, and ephemera. Pieces from art installations are available for adoption, so visitors can take home a piece of Queer Gainesville D.I.Y. art history. The event will also feature a shirt printing station and a collage corner.
5. Hippodrome Theater Art Gallery:
25 Se. 2nd PL. (352)-372-4477
A new gallery exhibition featuring works by many renowned artists from the collections of the one-of-a-kind nonprofit art. Offers distinctive pieces across a range of prominence, price points, and styles—something for every type of art lover and budget. The exhibit will change regularly as pieces are sold and new works are added, so visit frequently to ensure you don't miss potential. The Midge Smith Fine Art Gallery. The only art gallery granted 501(c) in Gainesville.

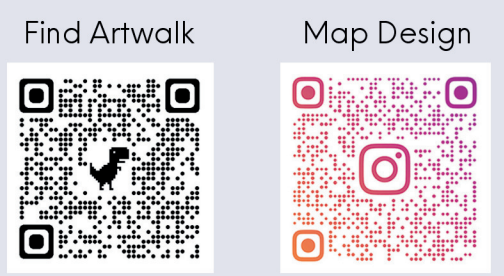

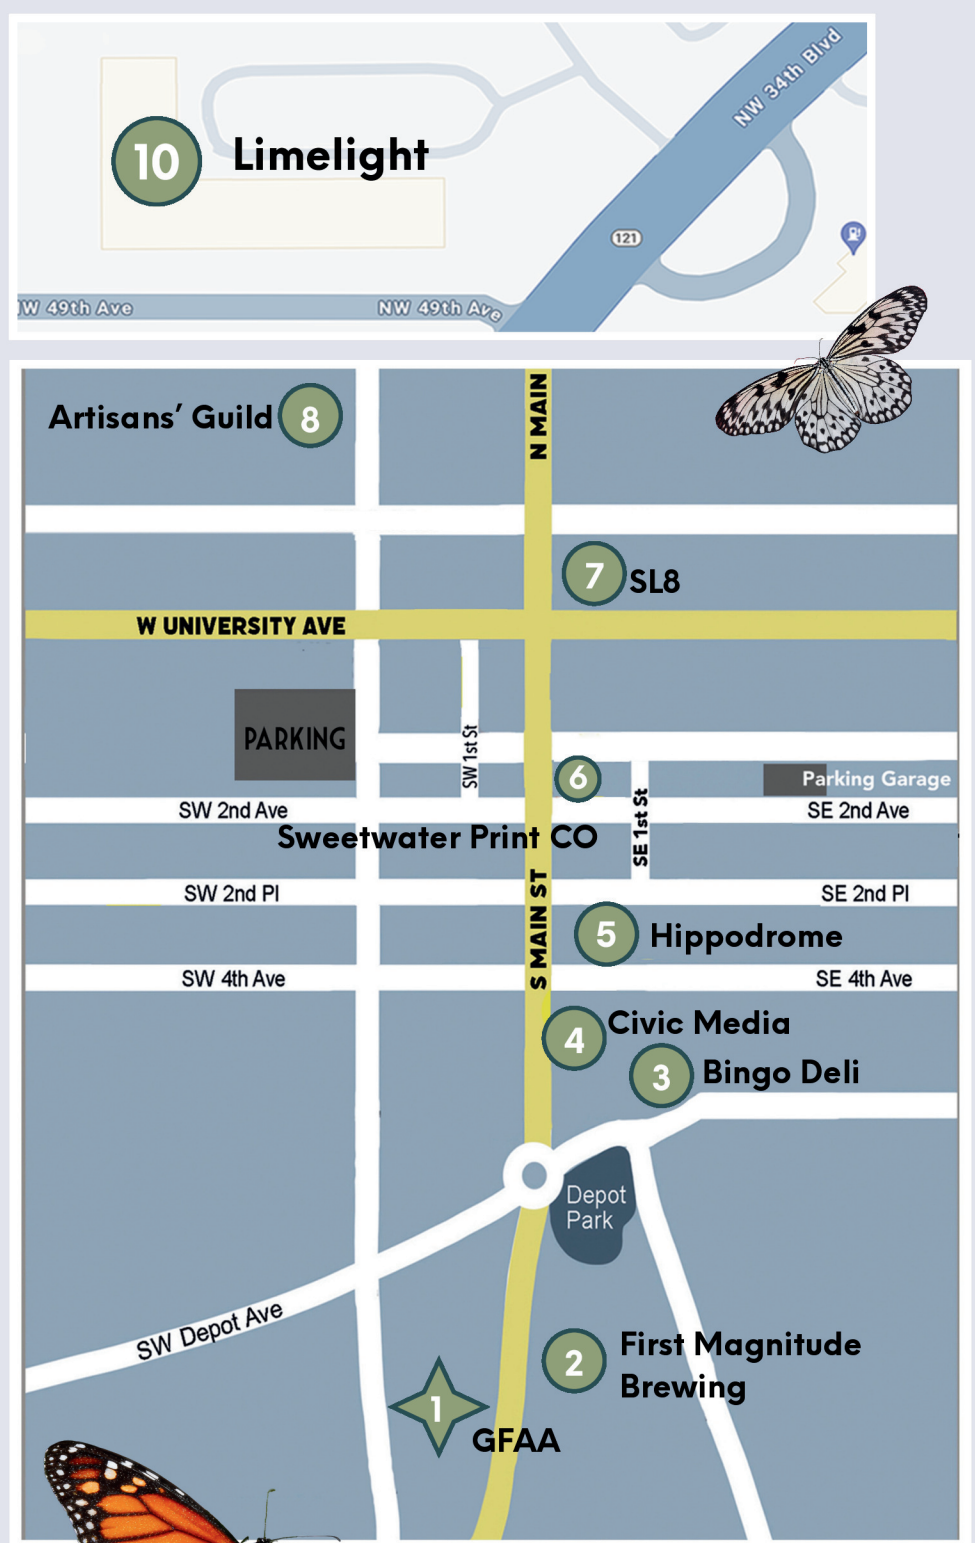

6. Sweetwater Print Cooperative 117 S. Main St.
The Sweetwater Print Cooperative's printmaker print exchange moves from the Historic Thomas Center to the Sue Jester Gallery. A collection of prints by Christine Brundige, Joanna Clark, Frank Curtis, Valerie Dibble, Mike Donovan, Toni Jepson, Asher Joseph, Leslie Peebles, Billy Simms, Joon Thomas, Diana Tonnessen, Lynn Webster, and Patricia Wolfe.
7. The SL8 Gallery of Art, 10 E. University AVE. from 7-11 pm.
The SL8 is an art café + cinema open Thurs-Sun, 7-10 pm with a slate of activities, with Garden of the Muses on Thursdays, music and art on Fridays and Saturdays, and art films on Sundays. For the January Artwalk and the first three weeks of February, The SL8 presents the works of George Hecht, whose exhibition "Paper Collage for a Digital World" reflects a journey from geology and paleontology to art—sparked at Wormhole's Tuesday Collage Night by Phil Harris after a 26-year career managing the Florida Museum.
Special Guest- "French all the Seams" Couture Leather and one of a kind wearable ART, to wear for the ages.
8. Artisans' Guild Gallery, 224 Nw. 2nd Ave. 11am-10pm Daily!
Abby Hogan, Lived in Côte d'Ivoire and Botswana, she immersed herself in West African textiles. Working with African batiks, tie-dyes, shweshwe, kuba cloth, and other traditional fabrics. Adding a distinctive approach to color, texture, and pattern. Living in Gainesville, she found a supportive creative community. Creating quilts, wall hangings, clothing, bags, accessories, and home décor.
9. Death of a Sacred Place: 1628 NW 6th St, Gainesville FL, 32609 Exhibit Title Death of a Sacred Place: A Duo Art Show from Philip Józef Brubaker and Jeremy McGuire!
Together, they offer images of our world and it's changes.
10. Limelight, 4908 Nw. 34th BLVD, Ste 11
We are hosting Artist Susan Levi. She has many skills. Bachelor's in art and has taught in schools, and with people who deal with disabilities. The human figure is her favorite subject matter of choice. She is a collector of crystals and minerals, combining two media into wearable jewelry. Per usual the Limelight will have music, improve and more. If you don't wish to go downtown. This is the place for you.

Friday, January 30th, 2026 From 7-10 pm

Artwalk Gainesville is a self-guided art experience of local galleries, artist studios, and cultural events in beautiful Gainesville FL.

Artwalk Director: Frank Curtis
Graphic Artist: Lindsay Cooper
artwalkgainesville@gmail.com
www.artwalkgainesville.com

Visit us at artwalkgainesville@gmail.com &
www.artwalkgainesville.com

Art Galleries
& Studios

Artisanal
Eateries

LIVE
Performances

Eclectic
Bars

ARTWALK
GAINESVILLE
ARTWALKGAINESVILLE.COM

Downtown Gainesville & surrounding areas (some venue hours may vary)

Sl8 Gallery of Art 10 E. UNIVERSITY AVE